

Polka Dot Plant

Botanical Name: Hypoestes phyllostachya

Type: delicate tropical house or patio plant

Height: keep to about 10 inches by pinching off

Light: bright light, loses dots if not enough light

Moisture: water and mist regularly

Soil: well drained

Blooms: insignificant flower, grown for leaf color, pink spots cover dark green leaves.

Fertilize every 2 weeks.

Propagation-Cuttings root easily.