Fragrant Mist Flower

Botanical Name: Eupatorium havanense

Type: perennial

Height: 2-6 feet

Light: Sun, partial shade

Moisture: Low water requirements

Soil: Well drained

Blooms: White, fuzzy very fragrant flowers in fall. Blooms profusely in full sun. Heat tolerant.

Cut back heavily in winter

Attracts butterflies and hummingbirds.

Native to parts of Texas.