Cindy Meredith is the owner of The Herb Cottage, a rural nursery in Lavaca County, Texas. In business since 1998, Cindy has a wide range of knowledge about gardening. Her favorite topics include growing herbs and using herbs in the kitchen and landscaping. More recently, succulents have become of great interest and Cindy carries a wide selection of succulents and can provide best growing practices for them. Sign up for the newsletter on the website to get information about herbs, herb growing, and using herbs in everyday living. Cindy loves to talk herbs, gardening and especially-gardening with herbs. Her interest in heirloom plants has led to an eBook and presentation on Homestead Gardens of Early Texas.
