

Hyacinth Bean Vine

Botanical Name: Dolichos lablab or Lablab purpureus

Type: Annual vine

Height: Can grow 20 feet in one season

Light: Full sun

Moisture: Regular watering until established then low

Soil: Well drained

Blooms: Purple butterfly shaped flowers late summer followed by deep purple seedpods.

Fast growing, beautiful vine. Can become invasive. Beans are edible but not very good and must be cooked.