

Texas Ash, Mountain Ash

Botanical Name: Fraxinus texensis

Type: native Texas tree, Edwards Plateau

Height: 40-50 feet, fairly fast growing

Light: sun

Moisture: very low

Soil: well drained

Blooms: female and male flower on same branch.

Birds eat fruits and flowers.

Exceptional fall color, leaves turn yellow, bronze, copper, pumpkin, tangerine, plum, mauve, dusty rose and lime in fall. Tree looks like a candle flame.